Doing Good In Our Community:

Parenting Now!

Formerly Birth To Three

Birth To Three is changing their name to Parenting Now! and we are helping them get the word out.

For more than 34 years, Birth To Three has helped Lane County parents by providing support and parenting groups for the most important work they will do: raising children. While the non-profit continues to serve local families, its name has changed to Parenting Now!®

"Our new name is a reflection of the families we actually serve," says Minalee Saks, executive director and co-founder of the agency. "We have programs that focus on the first three years of a child's life, and we also have programs for parents of children up to age 8."

"Our mission is that all children are raised by nurturing, skilled parents," Saks continues. "Parenting can be joyful, stressful, exhausting and delightful, sometimes all at the same time. Parenting Now! is here to help families thrive, right from the beginning."

The agency was born in Eugene. More information is at parentingnow.org.

To celebrate the name change and honor the 93,000-plus alumni parents and children, Parenting Now! is looking for "then/now" photos of alumni for an online photo album. Details on submitting photos is at thenandnow.parentingnow.org.

If you or someone you know is an alumni, please spread the word about the name change and the photo album. If you want to join one of the groups, have questions or wish to donate, please contact Parenting Now!, formerly Birth To Three, at parentingnow.org; 541-484-5316; or Facebook (Parenting Now).

Sanipac salutes Parenting Now! for Doing Good In Our Community!
